In Bobby Stan

Long life and health to our dear Scottish bard,
Who twist his bootmaking writes poems by the yard!
Of sweet winsome lassies, and meadows and trees,
The loving of kine, and the humming of bees.

His verses bring cheer to the sad aching heart,
Bobby, from Sidney, may you NEVER depart.
Our "Canadian Lander" is a lover of Burns,
True friendship awaits him wherever he turns.

Good luck to you Bobby, just sick to your hat,
Keep on "singing" soles 'till the long years have passed,
And you enter the gates where all good poets go,
Free from all sorrow, and worry, and woe.

You will meet Rabbie Burns in that land of delight,
Where peace reigns eternal, and love knows no height,
Cords of love and true friendship can never be riven,
Within this heart of mine.

SMALL TOWN STUFF

If, when you were born, all your relatives wanted to name you, your dad passed the cigars to all his friends and his "firm" gave him the rest of the week off, that was "small town stuff."

If, when you graduated from high school you sent invitations as freely as a farmer sows his oats, and you got a present from everyone you invited because they really wanted to wish you well—that, too, was small town stuff.

If, when you got married, your boss called you in and personally congratulated you, raised your wages and had you out to his house for dinner as soon as you got back from your honeymoon, that was small town stuff.

If, when your house burned the tenth year of your married life, half the town left their work to fight the flames, two of your competitors singed their eyebrows and baked their faces dragging out your grand piano, and your worst enemy dashed in at the last minute to save your little daughter's pet canary—that, also, was small town stuff.

If, that same year—your hard luck year—you got a cheque you couldn't identify at Christmas time for just the amount that would pay your wife's last hospital bill—that was small town stuff.

And finally—if after you read this you tilt back in your chair and say with a grin, "Gosh, that reminds me of the time, etc."—then, you too, thank heaven, really understand "small town stuff."

There are a lot of people of this district out on a limb just now hanging onto their pocketbooks. There is one of two ways out of this dilemma. Either keep on crawling out until the limb breaks or get back to safety down the trunk of the tree.

Getting back down the tree trunk means taking the padlock off the purse. Don't be afraid to spend some of your money for some of the things you want and need. It will make business for the local merchant, business for the manufacturer and get a lot of men and women back on the employment list.

OWNERS OF PROPERTY—Are you annoyed by having outside parties trespassing on your property during the hunting season? The Review has prepared a sign with the proper wording to help you in case you are looking for relief during the shooting season from unwelcome trespassing. We have secured a canvas material that will withstand the rain and dampness better than ordinary card. Working on the sign incorporates an order from the Game Act, pointing out clearly that hunters cannot tramp all over your property without your consent. For your benefit we give you the exact wording on this sign:

NO SHOOTING OR TRESPASSING

Extract from British Columbia Game Act: "Section 12.—No person shall at any time enter, with any firearm or trap in his possession, or permit his dog to enter into any growing or standing grain or upon any cleared land or land under cultivation, not his own, without the permission of the owner; and no person shall at any time hunt, shoot, or trap, or with firearm or trap in his possession go upon any enclosed land of another without permission of the owner, lessee, or occupant thereof."

FOR RENT—Cabins, from $10.00. Light, fuel and water supplied. Sidney Hotel.

MCINTYRE CHECKER BOARDS—A new patented board that makes the game of checkers different. The only radical change in design of boards made in thousands of years. Each player uses 14 men; instead of 12 as on the old board; there are no double corners, but a zone in the centre of the board gives the same amount of protection as the double corner on the old board. Boards sent to any address in Canada, postpaid, size 17 x 17, neatly bound, not including checkers, for $1.00; size 12½ x 12½, nicely bound, not including checkers, for 50c; or we have a nicely printed copy of this new game on strong red colored heavy paper, with checkers printed on the same material that can be cut out for playing the game; a wonderful pastime for bright children, and they have the fun of cutting out the checkers—and the cost is only 15c per board. Review, Sidney, B.C.

The Women's Guild of the Anglican Church, Port Washington, held a whist drive on Monday evening last in aid of the Guild's funds.

Harvest Thanksgiving service was held in St. Peter's Anglican Church on Sunday, Sept. 28th, the gifts of fruit, flowers and vegetables being sent to the hospital at Ganges. On Sunday last Rev. R. Mrs. J. A. Brackett, sr., arrived home from Alberta on Monday, where she had been visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Geo. Nelson has returned to her home at Ganges after having had the care of her mother's home during Mrs. Brackett's absence in Alberta.

Little five-year-old Murray Johnston had the misfortune to fall from a tree on Saturday week in which he suffered a severe fracture of the thigh, and is now a patient in the hospital at Ganges, where he is progressing nicely.

A Junior C.G.I.T. group has recently been formed here under the leadership of Mrs. A. H. Menzies. The group numbers ten, and the officers chosen were Sarah Stout, president; Gwen Stigings, vice-president; Mary Peat, secretary, and Adelaide Amies, treasurer.

The quarterly social meeting of the Women's Missionary Society was held on Friday, Sept. 26th, at the home of the president, Mrs. R. S. W. Corbett. A number of the members contributed to the program, and all are gratified with the financial results thus far, the allocation having already been exceeded. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostess.

CANADIAN PROSPERITY WEEK

Oct. 11 to 18

MANY PEOPLE do not realize that when a Canadian Canned Vegetable or Fruit is ordered from a Grocer it may mean an order to some Cannery for many, many cases. You may think the few tins of Canned Soup or Vegetables you use per month makes little difference, but this is what happens: You and your two neighbors each order only one tin of Canadian Peaches for instance. The Grocer, nine times out of ten, immediately orders a case (24 tins) from the Wholesaler. Two or three Grocers do the same thing and the Wholesaler immediately orders ten cases from the Cannery. The Cannery ultimately gets so many orders he cannot fill them and that means another Cannery or a larger output the following year.

The above illustration follows in every line of goods, whether it be a Canadian Sweater, Can of Salmon, Yarn of Canadian Cotton, Pair of Canadian Hose or What Not.

If everybody does his or her part during Canadian Prosperity Week, OCTOBER 11TH TO 18TH, Canada will flourish by her industries as she has never done before.

SIDNEY AND DISTRICT

Lumber at $10 a thousand is the big special being advertised by the Sidney Lumber Co. Ltd. on page two. Good boards, shiplap and dimension at this low price will certainly enable many throughout the Saanich Peninsula and the Gulf Islands to add improvements to their buildings and build new structures. The lumber business is hard hit and the local mill has kept running when almost every other mill in the province has closed down. Now is the time to do your building—when lumber is at the lowest we have ever known it to be and with many builders idle and willing to construct your dwelling, barn or whatever is desired at very reasonable cost.

Miss Mabel Wideston and Mr. T. Goodie, of Ocean Falls, were visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Larson, Beacon Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. White spent a few days last week as the guests of relatives in Seattle.

Mr. Neil Fraser, of Detroit, Mich., will be the speaker on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 12th, at the Sidney Gospel Hall. All are welcome.

Mr. George Wilson, Fourth St., left on Saturday for Courtenay, where he will be employed on the delivery of Rankin's Bakery.

The monthly meeting of the Sidney Board of Trade will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 14th, in Wesley Hall, commencing at 8 o'clock.

Jack Greenwood, of the Sidney Hotel, has gone the late Luther Burbank, plant wizard, one better. After nine long years of careful nursing he has developed an apple-tree out of one of his pet rose bushes. Yes, sir, pruning the structure of this pet rose bush that has been going to burst forth with roses valued at somewhere in the neighborhood of umpteen ten spots per developed bud has revolutionized the bush to such an extent that local shipbuilders and canning specialists of the immediate proximity readily recognize, in passing, one fine up-and-coming apple-tree—much to the amazement of the said Jack. "To think I have been so careful in pruning this rare rose bush all these years and then to be told it is an apple-tree," said Jack, "is simply beyond me." ... and he said other things, too!

The usual meeting of the Young People's Society was held on Tuesday evening in Wesley Hall with Group B in charge. Twenty members reported present and one new member was added to the roll. The subject for the evening was "Home Missions," given by Dora Thornley and proved very interesting. Next week's meeting will be in the hands of Group C and will be held in the church basement.

Mr. Farquhar, of Victoria, is now employed at the Sidney Bakery.

Miss Jessie McKillop, who has spent the past few years in San Francisco, has returned to her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mitchell and small son, of Vancouver, are visiting here as the guests of Mrs. Mitchell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Simister.

Miss Dora Thornley spent the weekend in Victoria as the guest of Miss Annie McDermott.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McAdams and little daughter of Victoria, were guests at the home of Mrs. McAdams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Whiting, Sixth Street, over the weekend.

Mr. V. E. L. Goddard, of the Customs Inspection, is at present enjoying two weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Homewood returned home on Tuesday. Mrs. Homewood spent the past month at Soap Lake, Wash., with her father, Mr. Robinson.

Mrs. A. Rankin, who has spent the past six months visiting with relatives and friends in Scotland and other parts of the British Isles, is expected home on Saturday. Mr. Rankin will meet Mrs. Rankin in Vancouver and they will leave at the first of the week for Courtenay, where they will reside.

BOXERS LIMBER UP AT GANGES

By Review Representative

GANGES, Oct. 9. — The Ganges Athletic Club held its semi-annual meeting and first club boxing tournament in their gymnasium on Tuesday evening, Sept. 30th.

After the business of the meeting was over C. Mouat and O. Mouat opened the tournament with three rounds of lively boxing, the former getting the decision. That was followed by a bout, H. Caldwell vs. D. Goodman, which ended in a draw, the men being very evenly matched. L. Nicholls and J. Akerman fought three hard rounds in which Nicholls won the decision. One of the best bouts of the evening was between W. Smith and S. Larden. Smith had the advantage in weight but Larden's footwork and speed gave him a slight margin in points.

Other contests were: H. Nichols vs. P. Nelson, C. Beech vs. A. Beddis. H. Nichols and Beech won the decisions in their respective bouts, having had more experience, but their opponents shaped up well and will be more formidable with practice.

F. Morris and R. Akerman ended the entertainment with the best exhibition of boxing given during the evening. The first round was inclined to be slow but in the last two both men worked fast, exchanged good, clean punches and displayed clever footwork, the bout ending in a draw. Akerman and Morris were presented with medals, awarded for the two contestants in the best bout.

Messrs. F. Stacey and C. Rudge then gave a gymnastic exhibition which proved a popular event.

At the conclusion of the display refreshments were served.

The club hopes to hold a public tournament with visiting boxers in the next two or three months and hopes to have the support of all those who are interested in its various branches of athletic activities.
